

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant Michael A. Piroutek's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Piroutek has devoted more than 21 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officer, including honorable service with Rapid City, Camp Zama Japan, Guantanamo Bay, and Fort Carson; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Piroutek continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant Michael A. Piroutek for more than 21 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 5, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
